Woodrow Wilson High School Football Field Rededicated

On Saturday September 20, 2008 at halftime of the football game, Woodrow Wilson High School will rededicate the field with a ceremony honoring Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier.

Rozier, a running back for Woodrow Wilson High School had a successful career in college and professional football playing for the University of Nebraska USFL Pittsburgh Maulers and the NFL Houston Oilers, among other teams. In 2006 he was inducted into the College Hall of Fame.

The ceremony at half time will include the dedication of Woodrow Wilson High School's new scoreboard and school logo sign and a ribbon cutting.

Joining the ceremony with Rozier will be Susquehanna bank, a corporation sponsor, and other former Woodrow Wilson High School players.
