

MEDIA

ADVISORY

Dr. B. LeFra Young
Superintendent of Schools

Office of Communications, Camden Board of Education, 201 N. Front Street 5th Floor, Camden, New Jersey 08102

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 4, 2012

Contact: Marlene V. Coleman
Publications Manager
Office: (856) 966-2590
Before 4:30 p.m.

Actress Karyn Parsons Speaks to Wiggins Students

Camden – On Thursday, April 5, 2012 at 10:00 a.m., film and television actress Karyn Parsons will visit the Dr. Ulysses S. Wiggins College Preparatory Lab School, 400 Mt. Vernon Street, Camden, New Jersey.

As part of the school's uniform incentive program, Ms. Parsons will engage about 200 students in activities from her animated series "The Journey of Henry Box Brown" and "Garrett's Gift." Best known for her role as Hillary Banks on the NBC sitcom, Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, Karyn Parsons is the founder of Sweet Blackberry.com which produces a line of animated films about unsung African American Heroes.

Karyn Parsons co-created, and co-produced the sitcom Lush Life in 1996 and starred in the television series "The Job" with Denis Leary. She also starred in several comedy films like, Late Night (1992), Major Payne (1995), and Ladies Man (2000).