School Spring Clean-Up

April 25, 2014 - In a post-Earth Day commemoration, students and staff of the Forest Hill Elementary School, located at 1625 Wildwood Avenue in Camden, will hold their first annual Spring Clean-up on Monday, April 28, 2014 beginning at 1:00 p.m.

City Council President Frank Moran, a representative from Mayor Dana Redd's office, Principal David Corvi, event coordinator Ms. Geraldine Livingston, and Camden City School District officials will join parents, students, and staff to plant flowers along the school walkway. In addition, a tree, donated by the New Jersey Tree Foundation, will be planted on the left side of the school entrance.

Donated Home Depot gift cards were used purchase many of the flowers and equipment being used for the clean-up. In addition, the City of Camden donated rakes, shovels, brooms, and garbage bags.

Photo Op: The Forest Hill Girl Scout troop will present a bench to be placed next to the donated tree.
